

The 10th Annual Bible Reading Marathon

"All the people assembled as one man at the square...He (Ezra) read from early morning until midday...and all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law." (Nehemiah 8:1-3)

A Judeo-Christian Event

The community is invited to be a part of a tradition that is thousands of years old! "The word of God" – the books that now comprise the Hebrew Scriptures were collected by the Israelites and revered as divinely inspired by God for hundreds of years before the birth of Christ. In fact the Hebrew Scriptures recorded events where God's people gathered and stood for hours, listening to the scriptures being read aloud. At that time of course, there were just a few copies of the sacred texts and the only way that people could learn God's Word was to hear it read aloud.

In that tradition, Loudoun Awakening hosts the 10th annual Bible Reading Marathon on the Loudoun County Courthouse grounds in Leesburg. It will begin at noon on April 29 on the marathon site at the Loudoun Awakening tent positioned on North King Street on the north side of the Law Library. The readings will proceed until midnight each evening and renew at 6:00 AM each morning until Thursday, May 4th, when the marathon concludes at noon, to coordinate with the National Day of Prayer.
